Jeffrey Rogg

Jeff started volunteering at Re-Member in 2015, joined the board later that year, and currently serves on the Development Committee. Jeff is a lawyer who's volunteer experience at Re-Member fits perfectly with his passion for social and restorative justice. He has served on several nonprofit boards in the past and possesses great communication, relationship building, and problem solving skills. Jeff's experience helps him speak enthusiastically about and promote the mission of Re-Member. Jeff holds a Juris Doctor degree from Wayne State University Law School in Detroit and currently works as the Chief Assistant Prosecuting Attorney in Menominee County, Michigan.
