Nicole Hultgren

Nicole started volunteering at Re-Member in 2006 and joined the board in 2007. She has served on the board for a total of seven years in the past, including as vice president, and has returned from a leave of absence to serve as chair of the Development committee in January 2017. Nicole's background is in education and communications. She has lived in France, Germany, and England, and speaks several languages. She has extensive networking and public speaking capabilities and her enthusiastic, outgoing personality make her a great leader for Re-Member. Nicole holds a Bachelor's degree in Political Science and French, a Master's degree in Education in Instructional Technology and Design, and currently resides in Minneapolis, MN.
